

MULTI-TIERED SYSTEMS OF SUPPORT (MTSS)

Catalyst for Educational Change is helping school districts across the country address their most pressing challenges implementing MTSS.

Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) offer a framework to build a system of practices and supports that ensures each and every student receives a high quality academic and behavioral educational experience.

Deeply connected to equity and inclusion, Catalyst for Educational Change (CEC) approaches MTSS through four pillars that serve as the backbone to this transformative change.

Foundations for a Strong System

- Empower your team with customized staff professional learning.
- Uncover the distinctions between MTSS and RTI.
- Master the core components of the different tiers of support.
- Dispel common misconceptions.
- Refine roles and responsibilities of your team and all staff.

Collective Vision

- Craft a preferred future state of MTSS through facilitated sessions.
- Define vision, position, and values to foster a culture of MTSS and instill collective responsibility for ALL students.
- Elevate your system's commitment to student success with strategic action and collaborative programming.

Systemic Alignment

- Align curriculum and instruction with special educational services processes.
- Ensure aligned communication and staff action to get to results.
- Receive personalized MTSS Guidebooks and Communication Plans.
- Access a fillable menu of interventions (academic & behavioral) for use in schools.

Shared Leadership

- Build strong MTSS leadership at each site.
- Co-develop targeted professional learning and coaching for seamless implementation and sustainability.
- Identify collective action.
- Foster a culture of continuous improvement allowing districts to transform their educational landscape with strategic leadership and sustained excellence.

Customized to Each System's Needs

Whether your MTSS exists and needs adjustment, or you're starting from scratch, CEC walks hand-in-hand with teams to assess their current reality and make data-driven decisions to refine, plan for, implement, and monitor to ensure success for all students. From assessment to implementation, our partnership with you is customized to your unique context and staff availability.
