KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

PHIL JANUSZEWSKI

Less Tired. More Inspired.

To truly thrive, we must flourish both inside and outside our work—staying energized, passionate, and impactful. In this dynamic keynote, Phil Januszewski shares three powerful actions to help us tap into our unique strengths, boost fulfillment, and avoid burnout. As a nationally recognized speaker, educator, and positivity expert, Phil empowers “givers” to create lasting impact while living with more joy and purpose. Get ready to reignite your passion, refuel your energy, and walk away feeling more inspired than ever.

DEVON LAROSA

Leading with Love: Transforming Education for Our Students

Change begins with shifting mindsets and driving systemic action to better serve our students. MTSS is more than a framework—it’s a promise to center those who need us most. As a leader in Chicago Public Schools, Devon champions equity in high schools on the South Side and collaborates nationally through Harvard’s Deeper Learning Districts and the University of Chicago Civic Leadership Fellowship. With 19 years in public education, he believes in leading with love, collective action, and an unwavering commitment to student success.
